

Albatross golf resort

Resort description

The golf resort Albatross is situated in the center of the Czech republic, in the village called Vysoký Újezd. This sports resort was opened in 2009. It is a luxurious, high-quality golf course that meets the highest european standards.

This golf resort is easily accessible from the capital of Prague and it takes only 15 minutes to get to the international airport of Václav Havel. This championship 18 hole 72 par golf course was designed by an English architect Keit Preston. The resort won an award for The Course and Resort of the Year in the Czech republic, which is an official member of European Tour Destination. You will find here two training courses, a putting green, a spacious zone for a short game, grass or covered driving ranges, sand bunkers and other training areas. A modern clubhouse offers all players a comfortable base including a conference room, a golf shop, a restaurant and a rental shop with all equipment and trolleys. The resort offers service of professional coaches for beginners and advanced players.
